

DCA YOUNG EXECUTIVES COMMITTEE

Good leadership is the backbone of any company. The Delaware construction industry and the Delaware Contractors Association are good examples. Both have been successful due to past and present leadership. Many of these people founded today's leading construction firms, and many of these firms have supported the DCA for many years. The DCA is now taking an active role to help develop tomorrow's leaders.

MISSION

The mission of the Young Executives Committee of the Delaware Contractors Association is to provide activities to promote the active involvement of the Association's future leadership in the construction industry and the Delaware community.

The Committee strives to organize activities that allow the members to interact and exchange ideas with their peers and build strong personal and business relationships within their industry.

BENEFITS

- Address specific needs of younger contractors.
- Develop relationships between young and senior members.
- Develop relationships with peers - contractors and suppliers.
- New understanding of the industry (A better look at the big picture).
- Better understanding of role DCA plays in the industry.
- Strengthen future of DCA.
- Create stepping stone for future Association leaders.

THE PROGRAM

The Young Executives Committee is for Contractor and Associate Members under the age of 40. The committee will meet bi-monthly or monthly, as needed.

YEC events are a combination of social, networking and informational gatherings. The committee has six sub-committees that provide functions throughout the year. They are:

Adopt-A-Highway – Rt. 58
AGC Build Up Program
Charity Casino Night
Crab Feast Raffle & T-Shirt Sales
Time Charity
Networking/Site Tours/Education
