2011-2012 COUNCIL MEMBER DUES PAYMENT

Membership in the AGC Labor and Employment Law Council is generally limited to law firm partners or senior associates and to in-house counsel who regularly represent AGC members or chapters in labor and employment matters. Membership has many benefits, including eligibility to participate in the Council's Fall Meeting and all other Council activities, participate in the LELC e-Forum (the Council's e-mail discussion group), receive all Council mailings, receive possible referrals by AGC staff and Council members, and receive a reduced registration fee for the Council's annual Construction Labor Law Symposium.

Council membership is by individual, not by firm. Each individual desiring membership must submit his or her own dues. Council dues are not directly related to or supplanted by any dues that your firm may pay for membership in an AGC chapter.

The Council membership year runs from October to October. Payments are accepted year-round, but dues will not be pro-rated for payments made mid-year.

Amount Due: $175.00 per person

Due Date: October 19, 2011

Instructions:

- This form is for payment by check by mail only. To pay by credit card, use our online payment portal at www.agc.org/LELCdues.
- Complete this form and return with check payable to "AGC Labor and Employment Law Council" by mail to Crystal Yates at the Arlington address provided above. Checks made payable to "AGC of America" will have to be returned for redrafting.
