Attend this one-day workshop designed to explain both the risks and opportunities contractors encounter when forging public-private partnerships (PPPs), and the role of PPPs as an alternative to the traditional public works development process.

Expert speakers thoroughly explore the role of PPPs as an addition (not a replacement) to the traditional public works funding and development process in federal, state & local markets.

Topics & Speakers:

- Why the interest in PPPs? – Les Snyder; CEO, Barton Malow
- The State & Local Legal Perspective:
Chris Lloyd; SVP, McGuire Woods
Gary Aller; Alliance for Construction Excellence
Pete Rahn; Director, Missouri DOT
- Experience of Contractors with PPPs:
Scott Cassels; EVP, Kiewit Corporation
Bob Raney; Chief Underwriting Officer, Travelers
- Money Matters
David Zachry; Zachry Corporation
Robert Heitmann; ZachryAmerican Infrastructure
- Case Studies of Successful PPPs
