

CONSTRUCTION LEADERSHIP COUNCIL FALL WORKING WEEKEND NOVEMBER 19-21, 2009

Registration is open for the 2009 Construction Leadership Council Working Weekend, to be held Nov. 19-21, 2009, in Nashville, TN. This event is co-sponsored by the AGC of America Construction Leadership Council, AGC of Tennessee and the AGC of East Tennessee.

This two-day event will include the best of all worlds: professional development sessions, networking opportunities, a construction site tour, and two social receptions. Please make plans to join members of the Construction Leadership Council (formerly known as the Young Constructors Forum) from across the nation as they discuss and learn about issues relevant to mid-career construction industry professionals.

Highlights include:

- Construction Leadership & Management Seminars – Bill Krausen of Messer Construction Co. – As the developer of a highly successful leadership development model and AGC of America's Leadership in Construction Workshop, Krausen is uniquely qualified to discuss the essential elements to instituting and being part of a dynamic leadership team. Messer Construction Co. recently was named one of the 2009 "Best Employers in Ohio" by the Society for Human Resource Management Ohio State Council.
- Construction Economics Seminar – Ken Simonson, AGC of America Chief Economist – An overview of the current construction market segments and the outlook for 2010, including materials prices and employment.
- Managing the Risks Associated with Green Construction Seminar – A member of the team that wrote the recently released green building addendum to the ConsensusDocs contracts will guide attendees through the risks, rewards, pitfalls, penalties associated with working on green construction projects.
- Welcome night reception hosted at the Doubletree Hotel Nashville by the AGC of America CLC.
- Friday night reception at the Wild Horse Saloon, hosted by AGC of Tennessee and AGC of East Tennessee. The Wildhorse Saloon is a three-level historic warehouse that has been transformed into a 66,000-square-foot live music and dance destination.

Registration Fee: $50

(includes two receptions, breakfast and lunch on Friday, breakfast on Saturday, and any transportation needed to off-site activities. Most events will take place at the Doubletree Hotel Nashville, downtown Nashville.)
