

The STP Instructor Training Workshop

November 4-5, 2010

Denver, Colorado

Program Overview

AGC of America has been the leader in educating construction site supervisors through its Supervisory Training Program (STP) for over 30 years. Developed, updated and field-tested by contractors, the STP curriculum provides the skills and knowledge crucial to a project's success and supplies the information every foreman and supervisor must know to make decisions quickly and confidently in the field. The STP Instructor Training Workshop provides the essential skills necessary to train these dynamic industry leaders.

You Will Receive

- Two full days of expert instruction.
- One Instructor's Guide which includes the Participant's Manual for STP Unit 1: Leadership and Motivation.
- One Instructor Resource Guide, CD-ROM and printed version.
- One workshop handbook with all course material and presentations.
- Lunch on both days on instruction.

Who Should Attend?
