

Graduate Criteria

Application must be submitted online.

A. ELIGIBILITY

The applicant must be a college senior planning to enroll or enrolled as a part-time or full-time student in an ABET or ACCE-accredited (or candidate status) masters'/doctoral construction management or construction engineering programs for the Fall term of 2021. Applicants must have at least one full academic year remaining at the time of application deadline in the fall of 2020 (i.e. earliest graduation date December 2021). Applicant must be a U.S. citizen or documented permanent resident of the U. S. (i.e. must possess a "permanent resident" card).

B. REQUIREMENTS

The applicant is responsible for ensuring that all items listed below are submitted as one complete package to the AGC Foundation, by midnight EST on November 1, 2020.

1. Completed online application form and attachments/enclosures
2. One evaluation form completed by applicant's college academic advisor or faculty member (these are completed online and faculty members are given one week's grace period after the deadline but don't delay).
3. One evaluation form completed by a recent employer of the applicant (also completed online with one week's grace period).
4. Official or unofficial transcript of college grades (see Section VII of the application)

NOTE: Incomplete application packages will not be considered.

C. AWARD

1. The scholarship will be in the amount of $3,750 annually to be used for the duration of the student's graduate degree program, up to $7,500.
2. Applications will be reviewed and the winner(s) selected by the Board of Directors of the AGC Education and Research Foundation. Reviewers will consider the applicant's interest in a construction industry career, undergraduate academic record, extracurricular activities, employment experience, and evaluations.

3. All applicants selected as finalists will be invited to a personal interview with a representative of the AGC Education and Research Foundation. Finalists will be notified in late January/early February 2021.
4. Scholarship winners will be notified in March 2021 and the award(s) will be announced at the AGC Annual Convention.
5. The initial installment of the award ($3,750) will be sent directly to the student prior to the beginning of the Fall 2021 academic year, with the final installment sent at the beginning of the next academic term. The student's major professor or faculty advisor must transmit a letter to the AGC Foundation immediately following the end of the first academic term, indicating the student's grades and intent to enroll in the following academic term. Check will NOT be sent to the recipient's college or university.
6. To receive the initial and final installment, the recipient must provide a copy of grades for his or her most recent term to the AGC Foundation. If the recipient has summer employment, he/she is to provide the AGC Foundation with their basic employment data. Recipients will not be reminded to provide this information. Failure to do so will result in disqualification from the scholarship program.

D. MISCELLANEOUS

1. All applications must be submitted online at scholarship.agc.org.
2. All applications must be complete and submitted by midnight EST, November 1, 2020.
3. For more information, contact Courtney Bishop, Associate Director, AGC Education & Research Foundation, by email courtney.bishop@agc.org or by phone (703) 837-5356.