Build America, Buy America Act (BABAA) Requirements for Federal Highway Administration Projects

|   | Buy America  | Initial BABAA Guidance  | 2023 BABAA Guidance  |
|---|--|---|--|
| Effective Date  | 1982   | Nov. 10, 2022   | October 23, 2023   |
| EffectiveContractThreshold                        | Iron and steel delivered to aproject exceed $2,500 or0.1% of the total contractamount, whichever isgreater.   | Projects that receive above$500,000 in federal financialassistance.  | Projects that receive above $500,000in federal financial assistance.Threshold set by a USDOT waiver.  |
| What ProjectsDoes It ApplyTo?                     | Road and Transit projectsthat utilize federal financialassistance.   | All public works projectsthat utilize federal financialassistance.  | All public works projects that utilize federal financial assistance.   |
| Iron and SteelRequirements                            | All manufacturingprocesses, includingapplication of a coating,must occur in the US.  | Same as Buy America Act of 1982.  | Clarified that requirements includebar, billet, slab, wire, plate, or sheet,castings, or forgings used in themanufacture of the finished good. |
| IncludedConstructionMaterials                     | None   | Adds: Non-ferrous metals,plastic and polymer-basedproducts, glass, lumber,drywall   | Adds engineered wood and clarifiesthat drop cable and optical fiber areincluded in the list.   |
| ConstructionMaterialManufacturingRequirements | N/A  | The final manufacturingprocess and theimmediately precedingmanufacturing stage.   | Clarifies specific manufacturing steps for each material. Click here to find the full list .   |
| IncludedManufacturedProducts                      | Waived because of theFHWA ManufacturedProducts Waiver . Iron andsteel in manufacturedproducts must comply withiron and steel requirements. | Clarified exemptedconstruction materialscombined through amanufacturing process witha non-exempt material aremanufactured products. | Same as Buy America Act of 1982 andBuild America, Buy America InitialGuidance.   |
| ManufacturedProductRequirements                   | Exemption for FHWAprojects - ManufacturedProducts waiver .   | Exemption for FHWAprojects - ManufacturedProducts waiver .  | Same as Build America, Buy AmericaInitial Guidance. Added clarity on thedefinition of cost of components .                                  |
| CurrentWaivers inEffect                           | General applicability waiverfor all manufacturedproducts.   | Waived for certain contractsand solicitations up toMarch 10, 2023.   | De minimis costs and small grantsthreshold .   |
| Exemptions  | Buy America requirements only apply to iron and steel.   | Temporary materials notpermanently incorporatedinto a project.  | Clarifies that materials createdoffsite, i.e., precast concrete, are amanufactured product. Ones mixedon or near a project are exempt.         |
| Future Action   | None expected in the near future.  | OMB will likely release new guidance in the future.   | FHWA is reviewing the manufactured products waiver.   |

Disclaimer: *Unless otherwise stated, all requirements are in effect in conjunction with each other. *The FHWA is currently reviewing its longstanding waiver for manufactured products waiver. *OMB is expected to release additional guidance which could add or alter some information above.

