RE: U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration Nominee David Keeling

Dear Chairman Cassidy:

We urge you to report favorably to the full Senate the nomination of David Keeling to serve as the Assistant Secretary of Labor for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) at the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL). Mr. Keeling's confirmation would bring extensive real-world experience to OSHA, as he is deeply familiar with the development, implementation and oversight of workplace safety and health programs and policies.

Mr. Keeling has a strong background in leading the safety and health efforts at some of the largest employers in the United States and has a proven track record of working with both labor and management in these roles. Given his background and experience, he is well suited to continue leading the mission of OSHA – protecting the men and women working across all industry sectors, including construction.

Thank you again for your excellent leadership in having the Senate confirm qualified individuals to serve at the DOL – we look forward to Mr. Keeling's name being added to that list.

Sincerely,
