RE: Congratulations and Request for Introductory Meeting with AGC

Dear Secretary Acosta:

On behalf of the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC) and its more than 26,000 commercial construction company members, I wish to congratulate you on your new position and respectfully request an introductory meeting with you on how AGC can assist you in your endeavors.

As you begin your tenure, AGC is confident that that you will focus the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) in ways that will help President Trump accomplish his objective to keep American workers safe and healthy while stimulating economic growth and creating new jobs. We believe that DOL can achieve these goals through regulatory reduction and streamlining, strengthening the symbiotic partnership between DOL and the construction industry and enhancing present regulatory compliance education and collaboration initiatives. These objectives remain top priorities for AGC.

I look forward to discussing how AGC and DOL can collaborate on these important efforts. Ashley MacDonald from my staff can be reached at ashley.macdonald@agc.org or (703) 837-5309 to accommodate scheduling.

Sincerely,
