

Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act

What is in it for direct federal construction contractors?

The AGC-supported Senate bipartisan infrastructure package, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, would invest more than $1.2 trillion in the nation's roads, bridges, transit systems, airports, ports and waterways, drinking water and wastewater systems, energy infrastructure, and more. Here is a breakdown of some of what is in it for federal construction contractors:

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Civil Works Construction Account	$11.61 B
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Civil Works Operations and Maintenance	$4 B
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Civil Works Mississippi River and Tributaries	$808 M
Bureau of Reclamation Water Infrastructure Projects and Grants	$8.3 B
General Services Administration and Customs and Border Protection Projects and feasibility studies in the " American Jobs Plan Project List "	$430.2 M
General Services Administration and Customs and Border Protection Land Ports of Entry infrastructure paving; acquisition of leased LPOEs	$210 M
General Services Administration Furniture, fixtures, and equipment for Land Ports of Entry modernization	$300 M
Natural Resources Conservation Service Watershed and Flood Prevention Operations	$500 M
Natural Resources Conservation Service Watershed Rehabilitation Program	$118 M
Natural Resources Conservation Service Repair Waterways and Watersheds from natural disaster	$300 M
Water Infrastructure Finance and Innovation Act Reauthorization	$75 M
Drinking Water State Revolving Funds and Clean Water State Revolving Funds Capitalization Grants	+ $55 B

Other Noteworthy Items:

- Gives Broad Discretion to Federal Agencies
 - Provides large sums of money to federal agencies to be distributed by discretionary grants. In many cases, this provides these agencies with the opportunity to prioritize additional requirements. In addition, many of these agencies will be tasked with implementation of these funds and could go beyond the scope of congressional intent.