

Dave Lindstrom

Dave Lindstrom has 12 years experience in education, as a teacher in the Mesa Public Schools, as chairman of the 11-member Business Department at Dobson High School and as an instructor at Central Arizona and Rio Salado Community College. He earned his B.A. and M.A.E. from Arizona State University.

Lindstrom is a member of the American Society for Training and Development. He is a past chairman of national AGC's Construction Education Committee and 12 years ago formed a networking group of construction company training directors, CIRTN.

Lindstrom recently left Kitchell Corporation as the Director of Employee Development. He was with Kitchell for 25 years and was instrumental in developing their coaching and emerging leaders program. He also was involved in Kitchell's succession, leadership and on-boarding programs.