When will I be charged for purchases made on the program?

- After the work is finished, you will need to provide the dealer with your VISA®, MasterCard® or American Express® credit card information to complete the transaction at the servicing dealership. You will only provide the dealer with the name on the card, first digit, last four digits and expiration date of the card that you pre-registered.

Will I get a bill from the dealer?

- Your credit card will be billed by Michelin, so do not be surprised if you get an invoice from the dealer with a zero balance or an inflated balance. The dealer is unable to give you an invoice with a completely accurate price as taxes and other fees may be applied.

Why is there a hold on my credit card?

- Michelin will place a hold, also known as a preauthorization, on your credit card of up to 5% over the estimated invoice price. This hold will be removed once the transaction for the actual amount has been processed; it may take up to 72 hours. If there are any changes to the invoice, such as additional tires, parts, services, or tax changes, a new preauthorization may be required to accommodate the new amount. Ultimately you will be billed the discounted price, not the Preauthorized price.
