 - completed application form with attachments;
 - undergraduate teaching load summary sheet (see Section III D);
 - statement from administrator of nominee's department as to what constitutes a full-time teaching load at that institution (see Section III E);
 - evidence of ACCE or ABET accreditation (see Section II C); and
 - a maximum of three (3) letters of reference (see Section VIII).

4. Evaluation

- A. Nominees will be judged on three criteria:
- full-time undergraduate teaching responsibilities (45%);
 - extracurricular activities with undergraduate and graduate students (30%); and

- activities with AGC chapters, national AGC and/or other construction industry organizations (25%).

B. Nominations will be reviewed and the recipient selected by the Board of Directors of the AGC Education and Research Foundation at its Annual Meeting in January 2024.

5. Awards

- A. The winner of the Outstanding Educator Award will be notified by mail in January/February 2024 prior to the Annual Convention of the Associated General Contractors of America. Only one winner will be selected. The AGC Education and Research Foundation Board of Directors reserve the right not to select a winner of this award in years when qualified candidates are not nominated.
- B. The Outstanding Educator Award will be in the amount of $10,000 ($5,000 in cash and two $2,500 scholarships awarded to two students of your choice), plus a trip to the 2024 Annual Convention, where the award will be presented. No cash substitution will be provided if the educator chooses not to participate in the Convention trip.
- C. The Convention trip will include round-trip coach airfare plus meals and lodging for up to four (4) days. Spouse/children travel expenses to the AGC Convention are the responsibility of the winning educator.

6. Miscellaneous

- A. Send nomination form, letter of nomination, letters of endorsement and all other materials in a single PDF via email to paige.packard@agc.org
- B. For more information contact Program Director Paige Packard at paige.packard@agc.org or 703-837-5387.

NOTE: Applicants have the ultimate responsibility of ensuring that this application and all forms are received by the AGC Education and Research Foundation by November 15, 2023. Email confirmation will be sent.
